Though this place doesn't look much safer. So it's the Spirit World.
Finally! Out of that oven!

And what exactly haunts the graveyard of souls?
This is the graveyard of souls!
Now I remember!
So it really is possible for souls to die a second time?
That's terrible!
And be mercilessly executed by the High Speed Demon!
Allow me to explain. This is where they lead souls who defy the Demon King.
Can you lot just get off of me already?
Ow.. OW!
Eep! Scary..
The one time I escaped this place was but a miracle. No other souls had ever done the same.
Correct! But unlike a human death, there is nothing more you can exist by.

So Zashiki-warashi is there any other information you can give us about the High Speed Demon?
Sorry Matador, it's just a little scary.
Are you all trying to crush me or what?
Not just taunting. The High Speed Demon is coming.
It's even taunting us about the High Speed Demon!
Oh god! A talking tree!
The High Speed Demon is invincible
You are hopeless
They often lie to trick people.
Guys, don't listen to what these trees say.
UWA AA!!
That's it! Let's use the any time door to get out of here.
You are all about to die!

The Hundred Eyed Demon has messed up the order of space and time in this world
It's pushing us out for some reason.

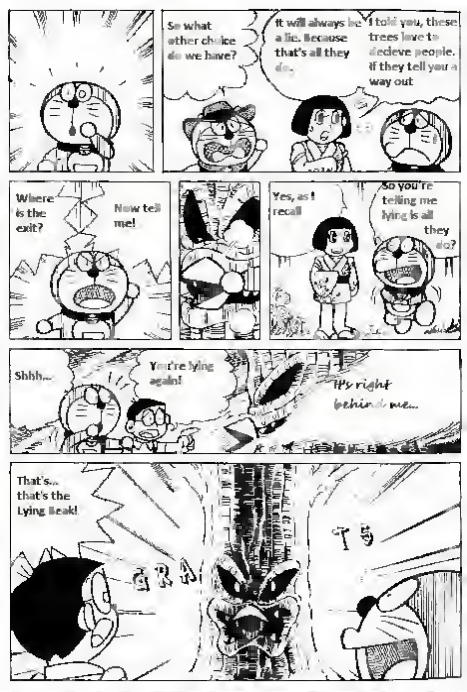
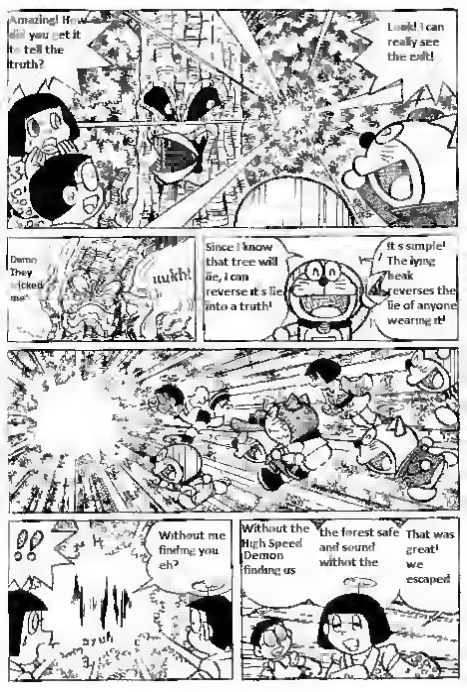
The exit is on my right way right
Oh perfect! We're back where we started?
Heheheh Welcome back little ones



So what other choice do we have?
It will always be a lie. Because that's all they do.
I told you, these trees love to deceive people. If they tell you a way out
Where is the exit?
Now tell me!
Yes, as I recall
So you're telling me lying is all they do?
Shhh...
You're lying again!
It's right behind me...
That's... that's the Lying Beak!
GRR
TS



Amazing! How did you get it to tell the truth?
Look! I can really see the exit!
Damn! They tricked me!
uukh!
Since I know that tree will lie, I can reverse it's lies into a truth!
It's simple! The lying beak reverses the lie of anyone wearing it!
Without me finding you eh?
Without the High Speed Demon finding us

Anyone know what just happened?
I'm just glad you didn't really go insane
That's our genius Wang!
Wow Great Thinking!
So I thought if I increase his speed even more, the greater friction can create fire strong enough to engulf him
BORAS

Just a little uncomfortable inside...
Anything wrong? Dora-rinha?
UGH...
This way!
If we hurry we can still save you!
No! Not yet!
Which means I'm already a demon!
